

The PAGB Awards for Photographic Merit are being held on the weekend of the 22/23 April 2017 at the Croydon Masonic Hall, 73 Oakfield Road, Croydon, Surrey, CR0 2UX. The Credit level will be judged on the Saturday with the Distinction and Master levels being judged on the Sunday. Tickets cost £5 per day and cheques should be made payable to the Surrey Photographic Association.

The doors will open at 09:00 with judging commencing at 10:30 on both days. Parking is at Stanton Road (2 min walk), free on Sunday. There is also a Railway Station at West Croydon (5 min walk).

The venue has full catering facilities and a bar, and lunch can be ordered either on arrival or during the morning break. Consumption of other food not purchased from the Hall is not permitted. There are a number of places close by where refreshments can be purchased.

Should you wish to attend either or both days, please send an initial email to the Print Registration Secretary at ann.healey@gmail.com, stating your requirements, upon receipt of which you will be contacted with information on where to send your SAE and cheque.
