The SPA 2020 Biennial Exhibition

The Surrey Photographic Association Biennial Exhibition of 2020 will be remembered as no other. On 15 February, our three eminent selectors – Gwen Charnock FRPS APAGB MFIAP, Philip Charnock FRPS APAGB MFIAP, and Paul Keene FRPS MPAGB EFIAP/d3 MFIAP – did an outstanding job deciding upon the best images from a large submission from many SPA clubs. It was pleasing that so many club members took the opportunity to submit images for consideration for which we were very grateful. We received 1,857 entries from 203 club members who submitted 422 Monochrome Prints, 558 Colour Prints, 244 Nature Prints, 388 Open PDIs and 245 Nature PDIs. It was particularly pleasing that at a time when some salons and exhibitions are no longer showing prints that so many of our club members continue to produce what are the ultimate photographic images – high quality prints. All of the images in this catalogue demonstrate a high standard from our club members covering a wide range of genres, demonstrating skill and excellent photographic ability. I would like to congratulate everyone who had their work selected for the exhibition with particular congratulations to those who received awards and commendations. Our small team of volunteers worked extremely hard in collecting the images for the selectors' consideration, sorting the images and assisting the selectors in their duties, and then returning the prints not selected to the club members who had submitted them. We were looking forward to presenting an outstanding exhibition.

Not long after the exhibition selection was undertaken, the world coronavirus pandemic completely changed our plans, and the lives and plans of millions of people around the world. The country was placed by the government into various forms of isolation with people told to stay at home unless absolutely essential. Our usual venue for the exhibition, Guildford House Gallery, was, of course, closed, and there was no possibility of holding any sort of physical exhibition at the time when we had planned to do so - over the month of April. As I write this foreword in early April, we still have no idea when the current restrictions will be eased or removed and so a considerable effort has been made by our Exhibitions and Events Chair, Ann Healey, to produce an exhibition catalogue to recognise the work of our members who had their images selected. It is our hope that we will be able to hold the exhibition, or at least part of the exhibition, at some time later in 2020 or in early 2021, not least because we all need something to look forward to in these difficult times and the images selected are definitely worthy of being seen by our club members and others. If it isn't possible to do this, we will at least have this catalogue as a reminder of the exhibition that never was. The effects of this pandemic will be felt for many years to come and it is my fervent hope at the present time that we come through the current emergency in the best way that we can.

Scoring

With the three selectors each awarding a score of between two and five, the minimum score available was six and the maximum fifteen. The task for the selectors is not only to choose the best images but also to select those that will make a balanced exhibition. The plan was for the winning prints to be displayed for the duration of the exhibition with the rest of the accepted prints being split between two hangings of 10 days each. This year, with a total entry of 1,224 prints, the acceptance rate was around 25% and a mark of 12 or higher guaranteed acceptance, as well as those prints which received a score of '5' from any of the selectors. A score of 11 in the PDIs was the required mark to achieve selection.

Exhibition Sub-Committee & Volunteers

BEST COLOUR PRINT – Girl in Yellow by Brian Collins ARPS AFIAP – Kingston Camera Club
The SPF Print Trophy and PAGB Gold Medal

Gwen & Philip's Comment: 'The immediate impact of this is the fantastic light on the girl. Her pensive expression is very appealing. The darkened figure in the background against the neutral wall further adds to the atmosphere.'

Paul's Comment: 'This is a classic environmental portrait. The lighting on the beautiful little girl and the colour of her dress make her stand out really well from the subdued background. I like the way the grandfather? is carefully positioned in the background, keeping an eye on his pride and joy and adding to the story.'

COLOUR PRINT – Selector's Award – Philip Charnock FRPS APAGB MFIAP– PAGB Bronze Medal
A Copper's Conundrum by Andrew Turner – Woking Photographic Society

Philip's Comment: 'This is one of those images that grows on you the more you see it. At first glance it looks like a chaotic street scene, but when observed closely it has great design and balance. There are so many interesting elements of life in the picture. Furthermore, the quality of the print is excellent.'

COLOUR PRINT – Selector’s Award – Gwen Charnock FRPS APAGB MFIAP – PAGB Bronze Medal
Seilebost Grasses by David Carine LRPS – Godalming Photographic Club

Gwen’s Comment: ‘This image has so much mood and atmosphere. It has a few simple elements but they are composed and recorded ever so well. The colours are beautiful, showing the subtle lines in the sky with an excellent foreground of grasses which lead your eye into the frame.’

COLOUR PRINT – Selector's Award – Paul Keene FRPS MPAGB EFIAP/d3 MFIAP – PAGB Bronze Medal

Ready Steady Jump by Bryan Roberts ARPS – Mid Sussex Camera Club

Paul's Comment: 'I love this. It not only tells a great story but it captures the moment as children are about to jump off the curb. I also like the way the red line of uniforms complete the composition and it's sweet the way the children are holding hands.'

Passing Storm over Cannon Beach by Peter Highton ARPS CPAGB
– Richmond & Twickenham Photographic Society

BEST MONOCHROME PRINT – Tussling Trunks by Ken Underhay – Cheam Camera Club
The CA Print Trophy and PAGB Gold Medal

Gwen & Philip's Comment: 'The photographer has made a tight composition, filling the frame with the subject and choosing a moment in time to great effect. Our eyes go to the calves, but the various body parts of the adults hold it all together and give a feeling of family protection. Great light and print quality enhance the texture of the subject.'

Paul's Comment: 'Great fun and you can see the baby elephants are enjoying the game. They almost look like they are laughing. The picture is well composed and well printed with light carefully arranged to take you to the main subject.'

MONOCHROME PRINT – Selector's Award – Philip Charnock FRPS APAGB MFIAP – PAGB Bronze Medal

Paying Respects by Deborah Highton LRPS – Richmond & Twickenham Photographic Society

Philip's Comment: 'Very dramatic documentary image which conveys great emotion of these two figures. Not the sort of image often seen in club exhibitions but one that will be remembered long after.'

MONOCHROME PRINT – Selector’s Award – Gwen Charnock FRPS APAGB MFIAP – PAGB Bronze Medal

Contre-Jour by Anna Levene LRPS– Godalming Photographic Club

Gwen’s Comment: ‘The figure is so beautifully positioned in the window and the light shows off the delicate statuesque contours of the model. The surrounding and frame-up of the subject is very subtle.’

MONOCHROME PRINT – Selector’s Award – Paul Keene FRPS MPAGB EFIAP/d3 MFIAP – PAGB Bronze Medal

Ms Ganguly Child Specialist by Brian Houghton ARPS – Godalming Photographic Club

Paul’s Comment: ‘I thought this was amusing and it's difficult to get humour in a picture. It captures the moment and there's an interesting triangle of light areas with her face and the signs at the apex. If I remember rightly, Ms Ganguly is a teacher but she looks frightening. I'll bet she scares the children.’

BEST NATURE PRINT – Ermine Galloping by David Hughes ARPS CPAGB BPE1* –
Godalming Photographic Club
The Len Todd Trophy and PAGB Gold Medal

Gwen & Philip's Comment: 'A stunning nature image which also has great pictorial qualities. Very minimal in composition, showing off the graceful attitude of the polecat. Even though it is white on white, there is detail throughout.'

Paul's Comment: 'Minimalistic but beautifully timed and a perfect exposure. Wonderful capture.'

NATURE PRINT – Selector's Award – Philip Charnock FRPS APAGB MFIAP – PAGB Bronze Medal

Spider 'Phidippus Regius' with Prey by David Carine LRPS – Godalming Photographic Club

Philip's Comment: 'This has fantastic quality and detail alongside striking impact. The subject fills the frame to great effect and displays action in nature that we don't often see.'

NATURE PRINT – Selector’s Award – Gwen Charnock FRPS APAGB MFIAP – PAGB Bronze Medal
Cuckoo Landing by Mike Young ARPS – Ludshott Photographic Club

Gwen’s Comment: ‘A perfect study of this bird set against a neutral background. The spread wings and fanned tail are superbly lit to show all the relevant details and markings. Good size in the frame and very sharp!’

NATURE PRINT – Selector’s Award – Paul Keene FRPS MPAGB EFIAP/d3 MFIAP – PAGB Bronze Medal

Kilauea Lava Flow at Dawn by Kirsten Asmussen LRPS - Bookham Camera Club

Paul’s Comment: ‘Something different and it's not very often we see good geological pictures. I also like the composition and the colour contrast between the red hot lava and the cool blue sea.’

Alaskan Bears by Nick Rogers - Reigate Camera Club

BEST OPEN PDI – Preparing to Burn Charcoal by Clare Collins ARPS CPAGB –
Kingston Camera Club
The Wendy Maunder Trophy and PAGB Gold Medal

Gwen & Philip's Comment: 'We love the movement of the cattle and the way the back lit dust adds to the atmosphere. The muted tones throughout the picture give strength to its pictorial quality. Also a good photo-travel appeal, giving information of how the masked man works in the fields with his animals.'

Paul's Comment: 'Great atmosphere. Very informative and a good travel picture. Harmonious colours.'

OPEN PDIs – Selector's Award – Philip Charnock FRPS APAGB MFIAP – PAGB Bronze Medal

Curiosity by Martin Faiers – Photocraft

Philip's Comment: 'I liked this as it breaks the rules of composition but somehow works. It shows modern day youth on their mobiles, but a slight tension between the two as one appears to be leaning away thus emphasizing the space between them.'

OPEN PDIs – Selector’s Award – Gwen Charnock FRPS APAGB MFIAP – PAGB Bronze Medal
Aurora Borealis, Sommaroy by David Wilkinson ARPS – Cheam Camera Club

Gwen’s Comment: ‘This is a super example of an aurora, making a very attractive shape over a dramatic landscape. Credit must be given to the photographer in recording what can be an elusive subject matter in such a skilled way.’

OPEN PDIs – Selector’s Award – Paul Keene FRPS MPAGB EFIAP/d3 MFIAP – PAGB Bronze Medal

Imapala at Sunrise by Martina Bennellick ARPS DPAGB – Bookham Camera Club

Paul’s Comment: ‘Super silhouette. I like the two lovers touching noses and can imagine that the one walking off is a jilted suitor.’

BEST NATURE PDI – Long-tongued Pallas Bat by Ann Healey ARPS DPAGB EFIAP BPE2* -
Richmond & Twickenham Photographic Society
The Derry Wilman Nature Trophy and PAGB Gold Medal

Gwen & Philip's Comment: 'The bat has been stunningly photographed showing fantastic detail of a creature we rarely see, let alone photograph. The composition is very strong with great quality of light. The impact speaks for itself!'

Paul's Comment: 'Amazing capture. Perfectly timed with the wings fully extended. The balanced lighting is very good too.'

NATURE PDI – Selector’s Award – Philip Charnock FRPS APAGB MFIAP – PAGB Bronze Medal

Male and Female Orange Tips by Phil Kirk - Malden Camera Club

Philip's Comment: 'A simple, but quality image of these butterflies. The positioning of them and delicate stem is perfect. Sharp and well exposed against a neutral background.'

NATURE PDI – Selector’s Award – Gwen Charnock FRPS APAGB MFIAP – PAGB Bronze Medal
Lion Cubs Fighting by Martina Bennellick ARPS DPAGB – Bookham Camera Club

Gwen’s Comment: ‘This image has a three dimensional feel due to the good use of depth of field. The position and playful attitude of the lions is so appealing in a setting which is obviously natural. The position of the limbs and tails make for a super composition.’

NATURE PDI – Selector’s Award – Paul Keene FRPS MPAGB EFIAP/d3 MFIAP – PAGB Bronze Medal

Red Knot over Oystercatchers by Mike Rowe FRPS DPAGB BPE5* - Godalming Photographic Club

And finally.....

A huge 'thank you' to the Exhibition Sub-Committee and all the other volunteers for their invaluable assistance and to the SPA Committee for their input

To the selectors for their sterling job in making the Exhibition selection

To the catering team who fed and watered us so well on Selection Day

But most of all, to the many SPA club members who submitted their wonderful images and without whose contribution, the Exhibition would not be possible

I do hope we will be able to display the excellent selection of prints at some point but in any case, I look forward to doing this all again in 2022
